

Open Door Mission

Breaking the Cycle of Homelessness and Poverty

Project Santa

Registration is December 3–23, 2018, at the Timberlake Outreach Center located on the Open Door Mission Campus. One registration per household (address). Project Santa serves children from birth to 18. To register, a parent or guardian must bring photo ID, proof of current address, and Social Security card for each child being registered. Each child may be registered one time only for this program. Only one adult per household needs to register. For your convenience, and due to limited space, please do not bring children.

Applicants will choose a date and time to shop in the Toy and Joy Shop before Christmas.
